

Job Opportunities

Pharmacy is a multifaceted profession. As a B.S. Pharmacy graduate and a licensed pharmacist, you can work in any one of the following establishments.

1. Drug Outlets:

A. Drugstore

- Drug Store Owner/Manager
- Supervising Pharmacist
- Chain Drug Store Chief Pharmacist
- Staff Pharmacist

B. Hospital

- Chief Pharmacist
- Supervisor
- Hospital Pharmacist
- Clinical Pharmacist
- Staff Pharmacist

2. Drug establishments:

- Pharmacist Owner
- Regulatory Pharmacist
- Company Pharmacist
- Researcher
- Clinical Researcher
- Quality Control Analyst
- Quality Assurance Inspector
- Medical Representative
- Product Manager
- Production Pharmacist
- Production Planning and Inventory Control Officer
- Marketing Specialist
- Sales Representative

3. Academic Institutions:

- Administrator
- Dean
- Assistant Dean
- Program Coordinator
- Department Chair
- Professor
- Instructor
- Lecture

Job Opportunities

4. Government agencies:

- Professional Regulation Commission Board of Pharmacy Examiner
- Food and Drug Regulation officer (FDRO)
- Drug Regulation Officer (DRO)
- Director of Food and Drug Administration (FDA)
- Hospital Pharmacist
- Researcher
- Consultant
- Philhealth Pharmacist
- Military Pharmacist
- Forensic Pharmacist/Analyst

5. Health Maintenance Organizations (HMO):

- HMO Pharmacist
- Medical Transcriber
- Health Call Center Pharmacist

6. Research Institutions:

- Researcher
- Administrator

7. Non-Government Organizations/Private Corporations:

- Project Director
- Consultant
- Company Pharmacist

Doctor of Pharmacy graduates are highly sought in hospitals which provide clinical pharmacy services and drugstores that provide patient counseling and drug information services.